

Excellence in Teaching

Awarded to an outstanding teacher in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) or the College of Veterinary Medicine (CVM).

Nomination Procedures:

1. A primary nomination letter (2-page maximum) that summarizes the nominee's qualifications or this award.
2. One to three supporting letters from colleagues or other professionals. One of these letters must come from the nominee's Department Head.
3. Up to six letters of support from current and former students.
4. The nominee's abbreviated current vita (2-page maximum).
5. A listing of courses taught during the last two years with summary statements that reflect student evaluations for those courses. The most recent syllabus should be included for each course listed.

All nomination packets are due by the close of business on October 23, 2009.

Send nominations to:
GSD Awards Committee
Office of the Dean, 125 Morgan Hall.